Mr Falconer
Dear and Honored Sir:

Happening to have a few numbers of the Illustrated London News of the year 1848, at which time there appeared to have been a determined effort of the people to obtain a real representative and constitutional government in Prussia, which effort has been crushed by several apparently coincident causes, and causes that (I suppose) no human being could have foreseen: I therefore beg to forward them to you, together with the acknowledgment of H.E. the Governor General

As to his being much interested in the revival of the interesting epoch of history dealt with.

I took the liberty of sending you a copy of an extract from the writings of J. H. Krummacher.

My dear Sir. this godly man was a prophet as truly as Isaiah, or Jeremiah, and is doubtless in glory now.

But all men (and especially all Germans) did not, or have not spoken well of him, tho they have spoken well of the false prophets save as Ahab encouraged Zedekiah the false prophet. (see 1 Kings chap 22.)

You are at liberty to make use of these Illustrated papers, but would request their return when done with.

I have the honor to be
Dear Sir

With many thanks for your intensely interesting lecture

Your Obedient
Humble Servant

Dillon T. J. Macnamara, Esq.,

186 Peter Street,

Orillia.

Dear Sir:

I am very much obliged to you for giving me the reading of the old copies of "The Illustrated London News". I have found them particularly interesting on account of having recently been concerned with the development of Prussian Government in the middle of the 19th century. It is many years since I have seen anything of Mr. F.W.Krummacher's, and I remember as a small boy that a book of his was in my father's library. I will return the clippings as you request and the letter from Colonel Farquhar.

Yours sincerely,

President.
